Seamless switch: Your child stays at his or her home school when school-day classes are over – no bus rides or adjusting to a new environment.

Consistent care: Your child hears the same messages they get at school, in a fun and engaging before- and after-school environment.

Extended education: Your child receives hands-on academic support tailored to his or her personal needs.

Exploring interests: Your child has a choice of after-school club activities, which spark creativity and critical thinking.
